WEATHER PROBABILITIES, May 8, 1880.—Partie Middle Atlantic States, northeast to southwest winds, partly cloudy weather, stationary or higher temperatures, occasional high pressure, and in eastern portions rising, but in southern portions rising followed by falling barometer.

THE MARKET TO DAY.—The market to day was better supplied with spring vegetables than it has been at any time during the season, and the large number of sellers and buyers present, together with the fresh green articles and basin flowers, presented even a more animated and attractive appearance than usual. The country people say that notwithstanding the season for strawberries is little backward in this section, the crop will be plentiful. The buyers were doing a good business this morning, with the usual variety of meats on hand. There were about the same as last Saturday, except for lamb, which sold at the per pound for three quarters, and 200 lbs. hind quarters, 400 per pound; hams, 82 per pound; N. C. yams, 400 per pound; ham, 21 to 32 per pound; bacon, 12 to 15 per pound; eggs, 12 to 15 per dozen; butter, 25 to 30 per pound; cheese, 12 to 15 per pound; butter, 25 to 30 per pound; single rye, very large, $1 to $2.50 each; 100 per pound; herring, 100 per dozen; flowers—Plumage, 30¢ a dozen; tobacco, 20¢; geraniums, 15¢; chrysanthemums, 10¢; begonias, 10 to 20¢; cyclamen 25¢ to 30¢.

TEMPERANCE.—The Alexandria Reform Club held a meeting at their hall, on Fairfax street, last night with Vice President L. C. O'Neal in the chair, and George W. Maxwell, secretary.

After the transaction of the regular routine business, addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Hale, Rev. Mr. Boyle, and Mr. Louis Mervin.

Address was given that a general temperance meeting would be held in the Club room at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon; also that Charlie Noe would deliver a temperance address at Saenger Hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

The meeting then adjourned.

The colored Woman's Christian Temperance Union also held a meeting last night in the room of the colored Reform Club, with Miss E. Walker in the chair, and R. D. Radford, secretary.

Remarks of an encouraging nature were made by William Gray, R. D. Hopkins, and others, after which the meeting adjourned.

THE READINGERS.—The Mahone wing of the reading party—the executive committee and their committee—will meet at the old Court house Monday night next for the purpose of understanding, nominating candidates for the offices of City Surveyor, Commissioner of the Revenue and Commonwealth's Attorney, to be voted for at the general election on the 27th inst. The only candidate in the field now in question is the regular conservative nominee, Mr. Lewis E. Payne, Commonwealth's Attorney. A. W. Armstrong, republican, and J. T. Hawley, a strong moderate member of the Mahone party, for City Surveyor, and W. B. Price, independent, for Commissioner of the Revenue. The reading party, Monday night will probably be Lewis E. Payne for Commonwealth's Attorney, Wm. B. Price for City Surveyor, and J. T. Hawley for City Surveyor, although the republicans, from what rank the republicans expect to derive their strength, are urging A. W. Armstrong for the latter office.

INJUNCTION ISSUED.—In the United States Circuit Court at Richmond, on the 7th instant, Judge Hughey, in the case of John S. Chapman et al. against Philip Warren, of this city, dissolved the injunction granted to defendants that they should not use any name "English condition powder," from February, 1879. Complainants alleged that they garnished the name on December 2, 1879, or almost ten months after defendant was sold goods under the above name.

FAIR IN WEST END.—The residents of Mr. G. W. Corlett's in West End, caught fire this morning, about half past 6 o'clock, from sparks from the chimney, but the flames, which had gained some headway before they were detected, were extinguished by the inmates, who, in great alarm, had rung the bell of Mr. Corlett, called Corlett and Mr. Dow, who were staying near by at the time, before much damage was caused.

UNSHAINED TO HAVE A DUCING.—The young Post-warden who started so bravely for home yesterday evening, but whose bad fortune from the still northward wind that prevailing so soon made him head for the shore, did not return until a thorough "duking," but the result of the unmerciful scuttle, told him he had better go home as he was about to perish miserably, with probably before her or in prison, if he never got home.

THE FOUNTAIN HOTEL.—The City Hotel in this city, will be opened next Monday by Messrs. Lewis & Parker. It has been fitted up with the most modern in pavements and handsomely furnished. Mr. A. A. Fox, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Fountaine, and Mr. Dow, who were staying near by at the time, before much damage was caused.
